

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

THE MONTHLY BULLETINS.

The purpose of this Monthly Bulletin is to present to the Public lists of the books newly added to the Central Library, as soon as possible after they have been properly catalogued and shelved. In order to facilitate consultation, the very simple method of classification already adopted in the West End Branch Finding List is here followed. A file of these Bulletins preserved will form a continuous record of the growth of the Central Library from January 1st, 1896. The present number contains titles from January to April of this year; the next number will contain titles from April 15 to June 15. After that each issue will contain titles to the fifteenth of the month preceding.

THE BORROWING OF BOOKS.

A careful examination of the following suggestions will be apt to settle usual cases of difficulty or inexperience.

BOOKS MAY BE DRAWN BY

Any person who holds a Library Card. All residents of Boston over 12 years of age can obtain a Card by applying at any Branch, Delivery Station or at the Central Library.

TO GET A LIBRARY CARD.

Apply to the Attendant in charge of a Branch, Delivery Station or at the Central Library. All you will have to do is to fill out a blank stating your name, age, residence and the name and residence of some other resident of Boston, not a relative, who knows you. If your name and residence and his are given in the Directory a Card will be issued to you immediately if the application be made at the Central Library, the day following if made elsewhere. Otherwise a delay of a few days may be requisite in order to enable the address to be verified. Verification of addresses is no longer done by police officers, but by a Library attendant who makes only the inquiry barely necessary to the purpose.

TO DRAW OUT BOOKS.

If you wish to read a book within the Library Building, first learn the call number by consulting the Card Catalogue, and then write it upon a green slip, following such other directions as are plainly given thereon. If a book for "Home use" is desired use a brown slip. The difference of process is that in the case of green slips, the book is brought to the reader, who waits in the Reading Room; in the other case, the brown slip accompanied by the Library Card, is to be presented at the Desk in the Reading Room, where the applicant should wait until his name or the number of his card is called.

THE RETENTION OF BOOKS.

An applicant may take out 2 books for 2 weeks. In view of certain slight changes in the revised Rules and Regulations the following extract relating to penalties for keeping books beyond a set limit are given:

Article VI. Any person who detains a volume beyond the time for which it is lent shall pay a fine of two cents for each and every day of such detention, and three cents for each notice of such detention sent by post. For every two weeks a book is so detained beyond the time limited for its return, such person shall pay an additional fine of twenty-five cents. Fines shall continue to run for a period of three months from the time when the book should have been returned: unless prior to the expiration of that period the borrower reports the book as lost, and pays the full cost of replacing it. The fine payable by him in this case shall be the amount accrued to the date of such report by him.

A book so detained for more than three months shall be considered lost, and the person detaining it shall, in addition to accrued fines, pay the full cost of replacing such book. No book shall be delivered to any person, or upon his Library Card, until all fines and charges due from him are paid.

Borrowers are expected to take notice of the expiration of the time limited for the return of books. No claim to exemption from fine can be established because of the failure of any notice to or from the Library.

DELIVERY AND DEPOSIT STATIONS.

Attention is called to the List of Stations given on page 3; at these stations every facility is given for the sending for and returning of books for the convenience of those who cannot easily frequent the Central Library or Branch Libraries. To most of these stations groups of books are now sent from the Central Library on temporary deposit; these books may be withdrawn for use at home. These collections will be changed from time to time. In course of time this system will be extended to all the stations.

WHEN TO RETURN BOOKS.

A book borrowed from the Central Library may be returned there or at any Branch or Delivery Station; books borrowed at a Branch or Delivery Station may be returned where borrowed or at the Central Library.

Librarian.

Bradford, William. History of the Plimoth plantation, containing an account of the voyage of the 'Mayflower.' Reprod. from the original manuscript [in the Bishop of London's library, at Fulham]. With introd.
by J. A. Doyle. London, 1896. *2320.5
An account of this manuscript history is given in Charles Deane's preface to the edition published in 1856 in the Collections of the Massachusetts historical society [shelf-no. *2320.32, 4th series, vol. 3]; also in a paper by Justin Winsor reprinted from the Proceedings of the same society. [Shelf-no. 2350.74.]
Mr. Doyle, the editor of this reprint, fails to mention that the original manuscript contains a book-plate stating that "This Book belongs to the New-England-Library Begun to be collected by Thomas Prince... July 6, 1703..." which library was deposited by him in "The Steeple Chamber of the old South Church," and after many vicissitudes, in the year 1866 was transferred, in trust, to the Boston Public Library. How and when this manuscript with other volumes from the Prince library found its way to England can only be a matter of surmise. It has been suggested that it may have been among the possessions of Governor Hutchinson when they were scattered by the mob in 1765, or may have been preserved by him and taken to England, or, more likely, have been appropriated at the time the Old South Church was occupied by British troops during the siege of Boston, 1775-76, and carried to England after the evacuation.
It was not until 1855 that this document, so long hidden, was brought to light by the efforts of American scholars, and its importance revealed.

THE TRANSVAAL AND THE BOERS.

Recent phases of the South African question must still be looked for in late magazines and newspapers, although several books mentioned in the list below are timely. Up to January, 1896, consult the Annual Literary Index (Bates Hall Reference Library and Periodical Room). To follow the situation nothing is better than the Review of Reviews, while its annual index, carefully studied, is invaluable. For daily news consult the Newspaper Room, where are current numbers of the Cape Argus of Cape Town, the London Standard, the London Times, a file of which is bound; and other London daily papers. The Graphic and the Illustrated London News have lately furnished almost weekly illustrated articles. The following list shows the books in the Public Library directly relating to the Transvaal and the Boers; consult, however, a very complete list of all works in the Library up to January, 1894, on South Africa, and all countries therein contained, in the Bulletin for that date. (Vol. 12, No. 95; new series, vol. 4, No. 4, pp. 273, et seq.)

THE MONTHLY BULLETINS.

The purpose of this Monthly Bulletin is to present to the Public lists of the books newly added to the Central Library, as soon as possible after they have been properly catalogued and shelved. In order to facilitate consultation, the very simple method of classification already adopted in the West End Branch Finding List is here followed. A file of these Bulletins preserved will form a continuous record of the growth of the Central Library from January 1st, 1896. The present number contains titles from April 15 to June 15. After this each issue will contain titles to the fifteenth of the month preceding. The present change of typographical form is made experimentally with a view to possible conveniences in a rearrangement of the Monthly Bulletin in a yearly volume. The names of authors are given in full as entered in the Card Catalogue.

THE BORROWING OF BOOKS.

A careful examination of the following suggestions will be apt to settle usual cases of difficulty or inexperience.

BOOKS MAY BE DRAWN BY

Any person who holds a Library Card. All residents of Boston over 12 years of age can obtain a Card by applying at any Branch, Delivery Station or at the Central Library.

TO GET A LIBRARY CARD.

Apply to the Attendant in charge of a Branch, Delivery Station or at the Central Library. All you will have to do is to fill out a blank stating your name, age, residence and the name and residence of some other resident of Boston, not a relative, who knows you. If your name and residence and his are given in the Directory a Card will be issued to you immediately if the application be made at the Central Library, the day following if made elsewhere. Otherwise a delay of a few days may be requisite in order to enable the address to be verified. Verification of addresses is no longer done by police officers, but by a Library attendant who makes only the inquiry barely necessary to the purpose.

TO DRAW OUT BOOKS.

If you wish to read a book within the Library Building, first learn the call number by consulting the Card Catalogue, and then write it upon a grey slip, following such other directions as are plainly given thereon. If a book for "Home use" is desired use a brown slip. The difference of process is that in the case of grey slips, the book is brought to the reader, who waits in the Reading Room; in the other case, the brown slip accompanied by the Library Card, is to be presented at the Desk in the Delivery Room, where the applicant should wait until his name or the number of his card is called.

THE RETENTION OF BOOKS.

An applicant may take out 2 books for 2 weeks. In view of certain slight changes in the revised Rules and Regulations the following extract relating to penalties for keeping books beyond a set limit is given:

Article VI. Any person who detains a volume beyond the time for which it is lent shall pay a fine of two cents for each and every day of such detention, and three cents for each notice of such detention sent by post. For every two weeks a book is so detained

CURRENT LIBRARY NEWS.

SIR WALTER SCOTT MEMORIAL. Permission has been granted to place a subscription list in the library, supplementary to those already opened in Great Britain, for the purchase of a bust of Sir Walter Scott, to be placed in the Poets' Corner of Westminster Abbey.

In order to make the subscription a popular one, the managers will be glad to receive contributions of from 25 cents to 25 dollars.

For each a receipt will be given, and the name of the subscriber, without the amount of the contribution, will be forwarded with others, in a volume, to the Honorary Treasurer in Great Britain.

THE BRONZE BUST of Oliver Wendell Holmes, ordered by the City of Boston of the sculptor, Richard Edwin Brooks, has been received and placed in Bates Hall.

SOME RECENT GIFTS TO THE LIBRARY.

FROM MISS VICTORINE THOMAS ARTZ, of Chicago: a fund of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), "the income of this sum to be employed in the purchase of valuable rare editions of the writings, either in verse or prose, of American and of foreign authors." These books are to be known as the "Longfellow Memorial collection."

FROM THE ESTATE OF THE LATE CHARLES MEAD, of Boston: a legacy of twenty-five hundred dollars ($2,500), "to constitute a trust fund, to be designated as 'The Charles Mead Trust Fund,' for the promotion of the objects of the Public Library"; to be used preferably for the benefit of the South Boston Branch Library.

FROM DR. R. M. BUCKE, of London, Ontario: thirteen volumes of Whitman's works in various editions, the earliest of which is the Thayer and Eldridge Boston edition of 1860-61; ten pieces of manuscript; and seventeen photographs and engraved portraits. This is understood to be the first instalment of a collection of works by and relating to Whitman, to be made primarily by friends of the poet.

FROM DR. W. N. BULLARD, of Boston: ten volumes of old and rare books and manuscripts, including an example (imperfect) of early illuminations, probably of the 14th century. Three issues of the Venetian press, 1474, 1479, and 1489, make a valuable addition to the library's examples of early Italian printing. One of these, a "Mamotrectus," 1479, is from the press of Nicolas Jenson.

FROM MR. AND MRS. JAMES M. CODMAN, of Brookline: six hundred and eleven volumes, forming, with photographs, prints, etc.,

a notable and interesting library of landscape architecture; given "in memory of Henry Sargent Codman and Philip Codman, landscape architects," by whom the collection was made. A bibliography of the subject, by Henry Sargent Codman, was printed in "Garden and Forest" for March 12, 1890, many of the titles included in which are to be found in this collection. Among these books is a superb copy of Taylor's "Voyages pittoresques dans l'ancienne France."

FROM THE ESTATE OF MRS. BESSIE S. LOCKWOOD, of Cambridge: sixteen hundred and forty-three volumes, to be known, in memory of her husband, as "The Hiland Lockwood Gift." The gift includes, besides a various collection of American history and literature, many volumes of bound periodicals, newspapers, and public documents.

FROM THE DUC DE LOUBAT, now in New York City, an interesting reproduction of a Mexican figure-writing, known as the "Nahua book." The original, Vatican Codex 3773, consists of nine pieces of tanned deerskin, folded in forty-eight leaves.

FROM THE FAMILY OF THE LATE GEORGE TICKNOR: a large cabinet-desk of mahogany, used by Mr. Ticknor, now placed in the Barton-Ticknor library; seventy-five volumes, mostly in folio, of engravings in the subjects of architecture and paintings; also some three hundred and forty-one supplementary engravings.

A COLOSSAL BUST in marble of John Greenleaf Whittier, given by the sculptor, William Ordway Partridge, has been received and placed in Bates Hall.

CURRENT LIBRARY NEWS.

THE GRAUPNER COLLECTION OF PHOTOGRAPHS. This collection, given in August, 1896, as a memorial to Miss Harriet H. Graupner of Boston, by her friends, consists of over eleven hundred photographs of paintings of the Renaissance period, of all schools, with a small collection of representative Italian sculptures. The various Italian schools of painting comprise about two-thirds of the whole, and are represented by well-selected examples of the founders and masters of each school. The series of the best frescoes, like that in the Arena chapel at Padua, by Giotto, like those of Martini and Gaddi, in the Spanish chapel at Florence, Gozzoli's in the palace of the Medici, Orcagna's in the Campo Santo, Pisa, Luca Signorelli's in Orvieto cathedral and in the Brancaccio chapel at Florence, and that of Fra Angelico in the convent of San Marco, are fairly complete. The northern schools comprise good selections from the Van Eycks, Memling, Van Dyck, Rubens, Rembrandt, Holbein, Dürer, Schöngauer, and others. Among pictures of the Spanish schools are examples of Murillo, Velasquez, and the minor painters. The photographs may be found in the Fine Arts room in the walnut cabinet in which the collection was disposed when presented. A selection of them is hung, with other photographs, each Saturday, in the Barton Library, to remain on exhibition over Sunday.

THE TODD PANEL. A panel has been placed in the Newspaper Room, bearing the following inscription:

The Newspapers subscribed for are the gift of
WILLIAM C. TODD, Esq.
of
ATKINSON, N. H.
who has expressed his wish in this way

"To do some good to a great many people."

THE CHAVANNES CORRIDOR. The decoration of the ceiling of the Chavannes corridor, which has been in progress for several weeks, was finished on January 16. It is the work of Mr. Elmer E. Garnsey, of New York, on the basis of data of color and design approved by M. Koos representing M. Puvis de Chavannes.

EXHIBITION OF PICTURES FOR SCHOOL ROOMS. A collection of solar prints, enlarged from direct photographs, has been hung for exhibition in the Juvenile Room, by Mr. Arthur A. Carey, who wishes, by this means, to show what can be done, at a comparatively small expense, to cultivate the artistic sense in school children; and to suggest to those who would be interested, the purchase and gift to schools of similar copies. The cost of each, framed and unframed, will be found in the catalogue, a copy of which may be had on application. Further information may be had from the Librarian, or from Mr. Carey, 29 Fairfield Street.

In the collection are famous examples of sculpture, the Venus of Milo, the Victory of Samothrace, as well as modern sculptures by Fremiet and Barye; photographs of Grecian and Egyptian architecture, of Gothic cathedrals, of Venetian and Moorish palaces; specimens of wood-engraving by Dürer and others; of famous paintings and mural decorations; and portraits of George and Martha Washington, of Lowell, Lincoln, Franklin, and others.

THE LÉTANG MEMORIAL. A bronze tablet, set in a marble frame, has been erected to the late Eugène Létang by his pupils and friends. It is placed in the architectural section of the Special Libraries floor. Following is the inscription:

BORN AT BOULLERET FRANCE
IN THE PROVINCE OF BERRI
HE CAME TO BOSTON IN 1871
FOR TWENTY TWO YEARS HE TAUGHT ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN
AT THE MASSACHUSETTS
INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY
IN GRATEFUL MEMORY OF THIS LOYAL AND FRUITFUL SERVICE
THIS TABLET IS ERRECTED
BY HIS PUPILS AND FRIENDS.

A PUBLIC TELEPHONE (pay station) will soon be established in the library. It will be in charge of a stenographer, who, in addition to ordinary stenographic and copying work, will furnish abstracts or verbatim copies of records in this library or accessible in other libraries in this vicinity.

BOOKS IN BATES HALL. The rule that books after use may be left on the tables, has been altered, at the solicitation of the readers themselves, who are unwilling to be held responsible for books charged against them, but which they are not expected to return. At present, readers are requested to return books to the Centre Desk. But in cases where the number of volumes, or the size, is too great, notice given at the desk that the books are relinquished is sufficient to release the reader from responsibility.

A NEW DELIVERY STATION, to be known as Station S, was established on January 18, at 1173 Tremont Street, near Roxbury Crossing. Here, as in some of the other stations, is a deposit of books which may be drawn directly for home use. This deposit will be changed from time to time. Cards will be issued here; but any library card, wherever issued, will entitle the holder to draw books from this station, or through this station from the Central Library.

OBITUARY.

Died, on the 5th of January, Francis Amasa Walker, a trustee of the library from the 4th of May, 1896, until the date of his death.

The following resolutions have been adopted by the Trustees:

Resolved; —

That the Trustees of the Public Library have lost, in General Francis A. Walker, an esteemed and valuable associate. Although his term of service was short, — being less than a year, — his deep interest in the Library as an instrument of public instruction, his ardent love of letters, and his great experience as an educator, made at once his suggestions and judgment, touching the many questions affecting the administration of the important trusts reposed in this board, of great value.

Being so well equipped for the work, it is most unfortunate for the interests of this great public institution, that he was not permitted to continue longer as a supervisor.

General Walker was a very remarkable man, eminent as a soldier, an educator, a writer, a lecturer, and a scientist. His great interest in public questions, especially those relating to economics and finance, his studious habits, his extraordinary capacity for work, his contagious enthusiasm in the prosecution of whatever he undertook, endeared him to the citizens and made his death a public loss.

His industry and public spirit enabled him to respond to constant calls to serve as member and manager of many scientific, literary, educational, and other organizations. As he was not impeded by weight of years, and apparently possessed great physical vigor, there was reason to believe his career of usefulness would be long. But it was otherwise ordained.

CURRENT LIBRARY NEWS.

IN THE FINE ARTS DEPARTMENT the display of photographs and of the larger books of reference, in extension of the work of classes in the public and private schools, as well as of clubs for reading, has proved so effective an aid that the administration of the library feels justified in inviting a more general use of this department. The Custodian will be glad, at any time, to assist clubs and classes with such books and photographs or plates as are in the library.

In the Barton-Ticknor room during the coming month the following series of photographs will be hung:

- March 6. On the Renaissance.
- March 13. The Buildings of Copley Square.
- March 20. On the Florentine Sculptors.

LIBRARY PUBLICATIONS. The prices of certain of the lists of books in the library have been reduced, as follows: the Catalogue of books relating to architecture, construction, and decoration, 1894, reduced to 25 cents; the Catalogue of English prose fiction, 1893, to 10 cents; the List of works in the Russian language, 1896, to 5 cents. The price of the Catalogue of books, in raised type, for the blind, has been set at 50 cents. These, together with other library publications, may be seen at the centre desk in Bates Hall. A list of these publications is usually to be found in the Monthly Bulletin.

BOUND VOLUME NEWSPAPER ROOM. The fitting of this room has so far advanced that any of the volumes may now be conveniently consulted. The room accommodates some three thousand volumes. Of the 318 papers currently on file in the newspaper reading-room, only the following are bound:

- The Boston daily papers and some Boston weekly papers.
- The New York Tribune.
- The Chicago Inter-Ocean.
- The Atlanta Constitution.
- The London Times.
- The London Gazette.
- Le Figaro, Paris.
- Allgemeine Zeitung.
- Kölnische Zeitung.
- The Japan Weekly Mail.
- The North China Herald.

ON THE TWENTY-SECOND OF FEBRUARY a series of portraits of George Washington, most of them loaned by G. R. Barrett, Esq., was displayed in the Barton-Ticknor room.

KELMSCOTT PRESS EXHIBITION. From February 14 until February 28, a complete collection (65 volumes, including some shown in duplicate) of the books printed by the late William Morris at the Kelmscott press, was displayed in the cases of the Barton-Ticknor room. The majority of them were contributed by the owners as loans. In connection with the books were shown a Hollier photograph of the portrait by Mr. G. F. Watts, and a series of photographs of Kelmscott Manor, taken by Mr. F. H. Evans, of London.

CURRENT LIBRARY NEWS.

WHILE THE ARTS AND CRAFTS EXHIBITION is in progress in Copley Hall, a collection of book-plates by Boston engravers, and of fine bindings, will be shown in the Barton-Ticknor room of the library. A great many, both of the plates and of the bindings, are loaned by friends of the library. They will remain on exhibition from April 3 until April 19.

A selection of books and illustrations relating to the arts and crafts will be placed in the same room, where they may readily be consulted.

DEPOSITS OF BOOKS, in each case about three hundred volumes, have been added to delivery stations A, at Milton Lower Mills, and D, at Mattapan; and these will hereafter rank as deposit stations.

ENGINES 13 AND 14, and Ladder 12, all in Roxbury, have been added to the list of companies in the Fire department which receive books on deposit from the library.

LIST OF BOOKS FOR YOUNGER READERS. A revised edition has recently appeared, containing nearly 150 additional titles. For sale at one cent a copy.

SOME RECENT GIFTS TO THE LIBRARY.

FROM A CLASS OF LADIES, students of the fine arts: a gift of two hundred dollars, to be used for the purchase of material for the fine arts department of the library. This gift is stated to be in recognition of the service which the library is endeavoring to perform in this department to students of art.

The Trustees hope that this gift will suggest to others who are interested in the development of this department, the giving of sums of money which may be used in the purchase of photographs in architecture, painting, and sculpture.

A list of the particular needs of the library, in this department is under way; and since certain systematic purchases are to be made this summer, contributions received before the first of May could be used to specially good purpose.

FROM THE CHILDREN OF THE LATE DR. BENJAMIN APTHORP GOULD, of Cambridge: 4,105 volumes, of which 691 are bound. They are given without conditions or restrictions. The gift includes the Annals of the Argentine scientific society (Sociedad científica Argentina) in 50 volumes, and the Annals of the Meteorological office of the Argentine Republic (Oficina meteorológica Argentina) in 50 volumes, and other scientific material.

FROM MR. RICHARD S. SIMONDS: the Gaceta de Madrid, a daily newspaper published at Madrid, from 1877-1893; in sixty-two folio volumes.

FROM THE COMMISSION for directing geological and geographical investigations in Greenland, at Copenhagen, a nearly complete series of "Meddelelser om Grønland," which is a valuable Danish government publication embodying the result of all Danish scientific researches made in Greenland.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Since the Turko Russian War
1877 and 1878.

In the Bulletins of the Boston Public Library for July, 1877, and July, 1878, are two Lists on the Eastern Question, Russia, Turkey, and the war then in progress. The following is a selection of titles of works which have appeared since that period, and which are representative of the larger aspect of the question. Appended are selected titles, illustrative of the history and condition of Turkey, Armenia, Greece and Crete since about 1880, but particularly during events of later years.

The Cretan difficulty is so recent, that books of importance have not to any extent yet appeared, and one must naturally turn to the important Magazines and Reviews of the past few months. Every facility for research in Periodical Literature will be afforded in the Periodical Room of the Central Library, where also are to be consulted the various indexes to periodicals. Special attention is called to the Cumulative Index, which is both prompt and comprehensive.

CURRENT LIBRARY NEWS.

COLLECTIONS of book-plates by Boston artists, and of old and modern bindings, together with books and illustrations dealing with the industrial arts, were on exhibition in the Barton-Ticknor room from April 3 until April 22, in connection with the exhibition of the Arts and Crafts.

The collections of book-plates comprised almost complete series of the work of Nathaniel Hurd, Paul Revere, Joseph Callender, and other early Boston artists, and complete series of many contemporary artists.

Among the bookbindings were two Grolier club publications on vellum, perhaps the most beautiful of the modern bindings. Three Boston binders were represented, Sanford, Hodge, and Mrs. George Shaw. There were examples of the work of Cobden-Sanderson, Zachnsdorf, Ruban, Rivière, Samblanck-Weckesser, Miss Prideaux, Roger de Coverley, Bedford, and Zahn. Most of the older bindings were in the collection loaned by Mrs. John L. Gardner. Among these were a Venetian silver binding, works by Eve and Le Gascon; and of later date, examples of the work of Derome, bearing the arms of the Duke of Roxburgh; of Hardy with gilding by Marius Michel; of Amand, with mosaic tooling; of C. Smith, the English binder, with the Aldine anchor; of Padeloup, bearing the arms of the Comte de Hoym; of Trautz-Bauzonnet; of Chambolle-Duru, of Capé, and of old Italian binders.

Among the illustrations of the industrial arts hung on the walls of the room were colored drawings of ancient Oriental glass vessels, designs of old Wedgwood ware, views of furniture and interiors of Louis XV. and Empire styles, designs for carpets, carving and book-bindings, and a fine collection of Eugene Grasset's plates, showing the adaptation of flower forms to the designing of lace, ceramic decorations, carpets, wall paper, stained glass, etc.

A selection of books bearing on the subject, quartos and folios containing detailed illustrations, was extended on the tables of the special libraries.

Thanks are due from the library to Mrs. John L. Gardner and Messrs. A. L. Hollingsworth, F. H. Day, F. W. French, and C. H. Taylor, Jr., for the examples of bindings which they generously loaned for exhibition; and to Messrs. F. J. Libbie, R. L. Lichtenstein, and W. S. Rowe, for the series of older Boston book-plates. The modern book-plates were loaned by the respective artists.

THE BOOKS LOANED by Mrs. Gardner will remain in place for several months. They will, however, be rearranged and many of them will be opened to show the contents. One of them, the first Aldine edition of "Poliphili Hypnerotomachia," printed in 1499, is one of the most beautiful specimens of printing in existence.

AN EXHIBITION OF PRINTS, lithographs, and original drawings, showing modern methods of illustrating books, was arranged in the Barton-Ticknor room on April 20, and the collection used in connection with the lectures delivered before the Massachusetts Library club, on April 22, by Mr. W. S. Scudder and Mr. Louis Prang. Specimens of old wood engraving, etching, etc., from the Library collection, showing older processes of illustration, were also displayed.

The travelling exhibit of photographs and lithographic reproductions of works of art, recommended for the purpose of stimulating artistic interest and taste in the schools by the State federation of clubs, was also shown in connection with a paper read by Mrs. H. J. Carter.

SUBSCRIBERS AND OTHERS receiving the Monthly bulletin of new books may obtain a title-page for the series for 1896 on application.

CIVIL WAR PHOTOGRAPHS. A selection of photographs illustrating in detail scenes and events of the war as seen by the soldier was hung in the Barton-Ticknor room during the week preceding Memorial day.

THE BOOKS LOANED by Mrs. John L. Gardner have been rearranged and most of them opened to display type, title-page, or illustration. It is not possible to mention more than a few of the rarest of them, which are of such importance as to demand notice. The notes are given here as they appear on the books:

De plurimis claris sceletisq[ue] [sic] Mulieribus. [Colophon.] A fratre Ja. philippo Bergomense. Ferrarie, opera : ipensa Laurentij de rubeis de Valentia ... M.cccclxxxvij. Illustrated with 175 remarkably fine woodcuts. "One of the most beautiful of the illustrated books of the 15th century."

Book of Hours. Manuscript on vellum; with miniatures supposed to have been painted by Hans Memling. Early 15th century.

[Colophon.] Sanctarū peregrinationū in monte Syon ad venerandū christi sepulchrū in Hierusalē ... per Petrum drach civē Spirensem ... M.ccccc.ij. Illustrated with maps and curious woodcuts. The third edition of one of the first books of travel and of the first itinerary printed.

Epistole devotissime de sancta catharina da siena. [Colophon.] Stampato in Inclita Cita de Venetia in casa De Aldo Manutio Romano ... M.ccccc. With a woodcut portrait. "One of the best monuments of the press of the elder Aldus."

Dante Aleghieri. Commedia [col commento di Christophoro Landino]. [Colophon.] Impresso in Firense per Nicholo di Lorenzo della Magna ... M.cccclxxx. With 19 rare engravings by Baccio Baldini from the designs of Botticelli. Only 9 other copies of this book containing the 19 plates are supposed to be in existence. Most have only 2 plates.

Dante. Commedia. Venetiis. Aldus. 1502. The first octavo (portable) edition of Dante. Passio Christi ab Alberto Durer Nurenbergensi effigiata. [1510.] The Little Passion. This is the artist's original edition of the 34 woodcuts printed on the two inner faces of each folded leaf, the backs being left blank: as issued by Dürer before the addition of the title-page or the text.

Divina proportione [di Luca Paciolo di Borgo]. [Colophon.] Venetiis impressum per ... Paganinum de paganinis de Brixia ... M.D.VIII. Diagrams and initials and 87 full-page woodcuts of geometrical figures and letters of the alphabet after Leonardo da Vinci.

MID. in aedibus Aldi Manutii. The first edition of what is considered the best example of book-illustration of any period. The designs have, by different authorities, been ascribed to Carpaccio, Bellini, and Mantegna.

A FLORENTINE MANUSCRIPT, a beautiful example of illumination, written about 1460; pages from missals of the 15th and 16th centuries; and a Venetian imprint of 1479, in which the text is from types, and the initials painted in by hand, have been kindly loaned by Mrs. Edward Robinson, and may be seen in the Barton-Ticknor room.

A COLLECTION OF BOOKS, illustrations, and other material relating to the Pilgrim colony at Plymouth is in one of the cases in the same room. Among these is the letter inserted in one of the volumes of the Chamberlain collection, having the autographs of Governor Bradford, Miles Standish, John Alden, and others. A fuller description of this letter is on page 15 of the "Brief Description" of the collection, which may be seen on application.

PHOTOGRAPHS AT THE BRANCHES. During the past week, a series of pictures of Egypt and Egyptian art was hung at the Jamaica Plain Branch; and of photographs of Greek architecture and sculpture at the Roxbury Branch. Similar exhibitions will be continued at the Branches when practicable.

THE PHOTOGRAPH ROOM is now fitted with the usual conveniences for taking and developing pictures including water, sink, and dark room.

PHOTOGRAPH FUND. At the time of writing, June 23, eleven hundred and ninety-seven dollars have been contributed to the fund for the purchase of photographs for the Fine Arts department. This amount, together with the money set apart from the library funds, will be used for the purchase in France and Italy of inexpensive photographs to illustrate class-work, lectures, and reading in the Fine Arts department. A full statement of the work which it is hoped this collection may do will be found in a letter of the Librarian to the Boston Transcript, April 5.

SOUTH BOSTON BRANCH. Through the courtesy of the proprietors of the Youth's Companion, a set of wash drawings, from which illustrations for that periodical have been made, was placed on exhibition at this branch.

MUTILATION OF BOOKS. On June 4 two boys drawing books at Station P were fined five dollars each in the Municipal Court for cutting pictures from books belonging to the library.

HIGHER EDUCATION OF WOMEN. A Bibliography of the Higher Education of Women, compiled by a committee of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, and edited by Mary Harris Rollins, has been issued by the library. It includes about 1800 titles. The shelf-numbers of such works as are in this library are printed with the titles. An author index is included. The price is fifteen cents.

BRANCH LIBRARIES. Finding lists for the branches at Charlestown, Dorchester, and Jamaica Plain appeared during the month. They are issued for free distribution. Lists of the books recently added in other branches will follow during the summer.

CURRENT LIBRARY NEWS.

WHITMAN COLLECTION. A second instalment of books and pamphlets for the Whitman collection, the gift of Messrs. James D. Law, Laurens Maynard, David McKay, Harrison S. Morris, Herbert Small, Horace L. Traubel, and Francis H. Williams, was received July 19.

CABOT EXHIBITION. In connection with the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of the continent of North America, a collection of maps and books, illustrative of the voyages of John and Sebastian Cabot, was shown in the Barton-Ticknor room. Many of the maps shown were fac-similes of unique originals held in Europe; but a number are copies of maps, the engraved originals of which are in volumes owned by this library. Most of these volumes were purchased in 1891 at the Barlow sale.

PAINTINGS BY HOWARD PYLE. The seventeen paintings by Howard Pyle, a gift to the library, (see the issue of the Bulletin for June), are now hung in the Room for Younger Readers. Catalogues may be seen on application at the desk.

BOOKS ON AUSTRALIA. The library has recently acquired a small collection of books imported from Australia. These contain much that is of great interest on the exploration and early history of Australia and Polynesia. Among the important books are Admiral Lütke's "Voyage autour du monde," with its fine atlas of plates, Grant's and White's early voyages to Australia, Captain Dillon's account of his adventures among Fiji cannibals, and his expedition in search of the relics of La Pérouse, and especially Vason's "Tongataboo." Vason was a missionary, left early in the century upon the Tonga islands, who became a "backslider," and lived for several years as one of the natives. Of interest also are Kerguelen's account of his discoveries in the Indian ocean, and a volume on "Australia and its gold fields," by Hargraves, the original discoverer of gold in Australia.

A further recent accession of great value is the Report of the Horn scientific expedition to Central Australia. The illustrations of the volume on anthropology are of especial interest.

THE YUKON GOLD FIELDS

TOGETHER WITH WORKS ON ALASKA.

Since the library contains practically everything of importance that has been published about the Yukon region of Alaska and its gold fields, it has been thought desirable to prepare a list of the titles relating to this subject. This list contains accounts of all the explorations made in this region, beginning with Dall's explorations made before the cession of the territory, in connection with the Western Union Telegraph expedition. Mr. Dall was the first to map the course of the river from its mouth to Fort Yukon, and his explorations are recorded in his "Alaska and its resources," published in 1870 [4462.4], which still remains the standard work on the territory, and is the work to be first consulted. Dall was followed by Major Raymond, whose astronomical observations [Report, etc. C.1417] at Fort Yukon established the fact that this post of the Hudson Bay company was really in the territory of the United States, and led to its abandonment. In the summer of 1883, Lieut. Frederick Swatka, the well known explorer, with a small party, made a daring trip, which was called a "military reconnaissance," crossing the Chilkat pass to the unexplored headwaters of the Yukon, where they built a raft and floated down the stream, returning by way of St. Michael's. His map, which thus supplemented the work of the earlier explorers, will be found in his official report [C.2261]. Lieut. Swatka also published popular accounts of this trip in book form [4361.61] and in several magazines. This route, or that over the neighboring passes, has become the regular road into the mining district, but little of importance has been written about the journey, except the valuable reports of William Ogilvie, the Dominion land surveyor, which was published by the Canadian Interior department, and Warburton Pike's "Through the subarctic forest," London, 1896 [2365.77], which also has a good deal to say about the gold region. The list also includes many works and articles on mountaineering in Southern Alaska. Though many of these have no direct connection with the passes to the gold region, they are of interest as showing what the Alaskan mountains really are.

The most important statistical works are the Alaskan volume of the Eleventh Census report, which contains an excellent map [*C.281.5], Petroff's "Report on the population, industries, and resources of Alaska," in Vol. 8 of the Tenth Census report [*C.280.1.8], Dall's "Alaska," already referred to, and Baron Wrangel's "Statistical and ethnographical reports on the Russian possessions on the northwest coast of America" [in German, 4278.3], published in 1839. The history of the territory is well told in Dall's "Alaska," Bancroft's "History of the Pacific states," vol. 28 [4212.50.28], and in the reports of the various governors and army and navy officers stationed in Alaska, which will be found among the government documents.

Of works dealing with mines and mining, the most important is a publication of great value, just received, "Information respecting the Yukon district," recently published by the Canadian Department of the Interior [*4367.141]. This contains the latest obtainable information about the gold fields, and is accompanied by excellent maps and illustrations. Numerous short articles have also appeared in different magazines and reviews. Of these, by far the most important is the article by Professor Wright on "The Yukon gold fields" in the Nation for Aug. 5, 1897 [Periodical Room]. Of interest, also, is Dall's "Report on coal and lignite of Alaska" in the 17th Annual Report of the Geological survey, 1896 [*7870.55.17; *7860a.84]. In regard to the natives of this region, we again owe most of our detailed information to Mr. Dall, especially to his article on "The tribes of the extreme northwest," published by the Geological Survey in vol. 1 of "Contributions to North American ethnology" [*4460.17.1]. The coast Indians are best described in "Die Tlinkit-Indianer," Jena, 1885 [4364.87], by the brothers Krause, and "The Thlinkets of southeastern Alaska," by Frances Knapp and R. L. Childe [4367.145]. The natives are also described in numerous magazine articles, as well as the reports by Dr. Sheldon Jackson on education in Alaska. Bancroft's "Native races of the Pacific states. Vol. 1. Wild tribes" [2362.63.1] is also worth reading in connection with this subject. Accounts of the natural history and geology of the region must be sought mostly in general works and reports. Apart from these, Turner's "Contributions to the natural history of Alaska" [Signal office, Arctic series, No. 2, *5900.61; *5900.71], and Dall and Bannister's "List of the birds of Alaska," in the first volume of the Transactions of the Chicago Academy of science [*7381.1] will be found of value. In regard to means of travel in the district, E. J. Glave's "Pioneer packhorses in Alaska" (Century, vol. 22, in Periodical Room), is of particular interest, as are also Dr. Sheldon Jackson's reports to the government on the introduction of domestic reindeer [5994.28; 5994.29; 5994.35]. Of more or less popular descriptive works, the best are Badlam's "Wonders of Alaska," 1891 [4462.137], Ballou's "The new Eldorado" [4365.100; 4367.109], Elliott's "Our Arctic province, 1886 [4364.86], Hallock's "Our new Alaska, 1886 [4362.110], Seton-Karr's "Shores and Alps of Alaska, 1887 [4364.68], Bear-hunting in the White mountains," 1891 [4366.132], Schwatka's "Wonderland; or, Alaska and the inland passage," 1886 [*4481.7], and Miss Scidmore's "Alaska," 1885 [1630.10; 4368.53].

Less important works are "Appleton's guide-book to Alaska and the northwest coast," prepared by Miss Scidmore (two editions, 1893 and 1896) [2369.106; 2369.110], "With sack and stock in Alaska" [Mountaineering] by George Broke, 1891 [4367.129], "From Yellowstone park to Alaska," by F. C. Sessions, 1890 [2278.63], "A trip to Alaska," by George Wardman, 1884 [4367.57], "California and Alaska and over the Canadian Pacific railway," by W. Seward Webb, 1891 [4361.127], Whympers "Travel and adventure in the territory of Alaska," London, 1868, and New York, 1860 [4462.5; 4468.54], Wilson's "Guide to the Yukon gold fields," 1805 [4466.125], "Capitain Jacobsen's Reise an der Nordwestküste Amerika's.

1881-83," by A. Woldt, Leipzig, 1884 [4365.74], "Among the Alaskans," by Julia McNair Wright, 1883 [2366.83], and Sheldon Jackson's "Alaska, and Missions on the North Pacific coast," 1880 [2364.70].

MAPS.

The following are all the separate maps which the library has at present: "The territory of north western America ceded by Russia to the U. S. 1868. Submap to Territory of the U. S. from the Mississippi to the Pacific ocean, 1865-68. (War department. Corps of engineers)" [4470.30; 4450.10], "Alaska and adjoining territory," by W. H. Dall, 1869 [4471.39], "Map of the northern portion of British Columbia," by A. L. Poudrier, and N. B. Gauvreau, 1891 [No. 3 in *Map 22.1], and the Coast Survey map of "North-western America, showing the territory ceded by Russia to the United States. Compiled for the Department of state," 1867 [*4312.8]. Numerous maps, however, will be found in the works already specified.

SOME RECENT GIFTS TO THE LIBRARY.

THE NEWSPAPER ROOM.

THE PRINCIPAL SUM of fifty thousand dollars, proposed by Mr. William C. Todd, of Atkinson, New Hampshire, as an endowment for the Newspaper Reading Room, is now to be turned over to the city. Mr. Todd's final proposal took the form of a communication to the City Government, as follows:

Atkinson, N. H., Oct. 21, 1897.

Hon. Josiah Quincy, Mayor of the City of Boston.

Dear Sir: — Impressed with the increasing importance and influence of newspapers, and the great demand for them by all classes of the community, I addressed, June 16, 1893, while the new building was in process of erection, a communication to the Trustees of the Public Library, offering to pay two thousand dollars annually for the purchase of newspapers, if the Trustees would connect with the Library a newspaper department. My proposition was accepted. After three years experience of its operation, the Librarian has assured me of its success, of the increasing interest shown in it by citizens and strangers, and of its value as a part of the Library. I have been paying two thousand dollars annually since its opening, and wish to insure that amount permanently for the maintenance of this newspaper department of the Library.

I therefore offer to give to the City of Boston the sum of fifty thousand dollars; provided, that the City Government requires its City Treasurer to accept this sum, hold the same in trust, and expend the income annually in payment for such current newspapers of this and other countries, as the board of officers for the time being having charge of the Public Library of the city shall purchase, the same to be kept in a suitable room in the building in which the Central Public Library is now or may hereafter be located, and use no part of said income for the maintenance of the department where such newspapers are kept, or for any other purpose than the payment for such newspapers, it being my desire that the whole of the annual income shall be used solely for the purchase of newspapers; and provided further, that the city government authorizes the mayor of the city to execute and deliver to me an agreement of the city that if the annual income from said fund shall in any year be less than two thousand dollars, the city will appropriate the necessary amount to make the income up to two thousand dollars, to carry out the purposes for which this fund is given.

This gift is subject to the understanding that said board or officers shall have the entire discretion as to the length of time which the newspapers are to be kept on file, or to be preserved, or as to their disposal, and as to the restrictions and regulations under which the use of said newspapers shall be enjoyed.

I am not a citizen of Boston, but regard it as a city of rare privileges, and it will certainly be one of them to have free access to representative newspapers of the world. It is the metropolis of New England, the centre of a large and cultivated population, and the attractive resort at all times of strangers from every section of the globe, ever anxious to see their home papers. I repeat, as I said in my communication of June 16, 1893, that my only interest in this matter is the wish to do some good to a great many people.

If this proposal meets your approval, I would ask that you submit the matter to the city council, and request that, if it meets their approval, such steps may be taken as will enable me to pay this money to the city at once.

Respectfully,

William C. Todd.

This communication was submitted by the Mayor to the Board of Aldermen and to the Common Council, and the proposal was unanimously accepted by both bodies; in the former on October 26, in the latter on October 28.

CURRENT LIBRARY NEWS.

SERIAL LIST. Attention is called to the List of Periodicals, Newspapers, Transactions, etc., currently taken by the libraries of Boston and vicinity. The titles of 5,640 serials received at 36 libraries are included.

The cost of publication of this list was advanced by the Boston Public Library, in the expectation that its interest to scholars, students, and writers in and near Boston would lead to the sale of a number of copies sufficient to defray in large part the cost. The price of the list is 25 cents, by mail 30 cents.

AN EXHIBITION of Hollier photographs of paintings by the English Pre-Raphaelite school (purchased out of the fund subscribed during the spring and early summer) has been held during the past fortnight in the Barton-Ticknor room.

STATION T, a new delivery and deposit station, was opened on the first of November in the drug store of Joseph B. Locke, Lamartine corner of Paul Gore Street, Boylston Street Station, Jamaica Plain.

SUNDAY OPENING OF BRANCHES. Since November 7, the Branches at Charlestown, East Boston, and South Boston have been opened for reading and reference on Sundays, 2 to 10 P.M.

SOME RECENT GIFTS TO THE LIBRARY.

FROM WILLIAM C. TODD, ESQ., of Atkinson, N. H.: a file of the London Times from 1809 to the present day. This set is the largest sold in London for many years. The Times was begun (under that name) in 1788. The Library lacks, therefore, the volumes of the first twenty years.

FROM ARCHBISHOP WILLIAMS: a set of the Acta Sanctae Sedis, or Acts of the Holy See, in 28 volumes, published in Rome by the Society for Propagating the Faith. This is the official publication, issued periodically. It contains the decisions, etc., of the Congregations and Commissions of the Roman College of Cardinals, advising or reporting to the Pope on various matters relating to the doctrine and practice of the Catholic Church.

The set is indispensable to the student of Roman Catholic doctrine and practice, and the acquisition of it has been urgently desired by the Library. This fact having come to the attention of the Archbishop, he generously ordered this set to be purchased, to be specially bound, and to be delivered to the Library as a gift from him.

FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF DORPAT, RUSSIA: 15 dissertations on Anthropology and Ethnology, given in response to a request by the Library for material to be used in the list of books in these subjects compiled by Professor W. Z. Ripley, of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and to be published by the Library. This list will include the titles of more than 1000 works on the Geographical Anthropology of Europe, most of which will be found in this Library.

FROM MESSRS. COPELAND AND DAY, Boston, in continuance of the practice of giving to the Library a copy of every book issued by them: 3 volumes. Since January 1, 1897, the Library has received as gifts from this firm some 30 volumes.

FROM THE CHURCH OF THE UNITY: a set, complete in 17 volumes, of "Unity Pulpit," the sermons preached in Boston by Rev. M. J. Savage, D.D. This set, which formerly belonged to the church, is presented to the Library for preservation by the Standing Committee through Mr. Alfred Ewer, Treasurer.
